

	PAGE
Content	i
Foreword	ii
Abbreviations	iii
Glossary	vi
Overview	x
Key points	xiv
1 About the Review	1
About the review, The 10th Malaysia Plan: Modernizing Business Regulation, What the MPC has been asked to do, Approach and rationale of this review, Conduct of the study, Structure of the report
2 Logistics Economic Performance	10
Introduction, Overview of Malaysia's economic competitiveness, The Malaysian economy, Trade in goods and the industries, Mode of transportation, Infrastructure
3 Regulatory burdens: Core concepts	32
Why regulation? Regulatory burdens, Unnecessary regulatory burdens, Good governance and best practice regulation, Approach to regulatory design, Government Initiative in best regulatory practice, Complexity of regulations in logistics, Costs of regulatory compliance
4 Logistics value chain	52
Introduction, Overview on Logistics Value Chain, Key Elements for Value Chain Analysis for RURB, The Seven-step Sea Freight Transportation Model, Logistics Value Chain Models, Sea Freight Logistics Stakeholder Analysis, Standard Industrial Classification of Freight Logistics, Logistics Trade Directory, Appendix
5 Logistics stakeholders	85
Introduction, Ministry of Transport Malaysia, Bilateral and International Agreements, Royal Malaysian Customs, Land Public Transport Commission, Road Transport Department, Permit Issuing Agencies for Cross Border Trading, Trade Associations and Chambers of Commerce as Intermediaries, The Logistics Businesses, Conclusion
6 Regulatory issues in freight logistics	116
Introduction, Regulatory issues from shippers, Issues from freight forwarders, Issues from containers hauliers, Issues from Port Operator and Free Zone Operator, Concluding remarks
Appendix – Issue Paper	156